ABSTRACT

This report addresses strategies and action plans for Palm Beach Community College (PBCC) (Florida) between 1999-2004. As part of a commitment to achieve specific, measurable end results, the college has set various objectives, including: (1) develop, implement and institutionalize a mission driven strategic budget for the 1999-2000 fiscal year; (2) increase formalized partnerships by 20% by 2001; (3) allocate and develop district facilities to meet student needs by 2000-2001; and (4) be in total compliance with the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools' standards for accreditation by 2001. During the action-plan phase specific operational plans are developed to implement the strategies. The Action Team does not implement the plans, but the plans they develop contain enough detail that they can be carried out when operationally assigned. To strengthen and implement a comprehensive staff development program, the college will incorporate its emphasis on the code of ethics into staff development, develop comprehensive programs to meet Individual Professional Development Plans, and create training programs to address new college/campus/unit/department initiatives. Additionally, PBCC will strive to integrate current technology into all aspects of the college. (JA)

Contents

At the onset of the 1998-99 academic year, I announced that Palm Beach Community College would undertake a five-year comprehensive strategic planning process to deal with growth and change. Strategic planning is concerned with the whole system, and is driven by the vision and commitment of faculty, staff, students and community members. PBCC's Strategic Plan has resulted in a common purpose, a unified sense of direction, priorities for change and a blueprint for action.

The strategic planning process began in November 1998 with faculty, staff, students and members of the community participating in a series of "listening sessions" on all locations. A Strategic Planning team was developed and designed to represent every component of the College community including representatives from faculty, staff, the student body, administration, the PBCC Board of Trustees, public schools, universities, businesses, agencies and chambers of commerce.

The Strategic Planning team prepared the foundation of our plan including Beliefs, Vision, Mission, Objectives and Strategies. During the spring and into the summer, more than 250 staff, faculty and students worked diligently to prepare Action Plans, which, when implemented, will achieve the desired Strategies and move PBCC toward its Mission. These Action Plans were formally presented to the Strategic Planning Team on September 21, 1999. The plans were reviewed for priorities, timelines and costs by my staff, and were presented, with my endorsement, to the Board of Trustees for final adoption.

"Education is the catalyst of change, and I cannot think of another institution that has been more receptive to change than PBCC."

PBCC President
Dennis P. Gallon, Ph.D.

The Mission statement is a clear and concise expression of our purpose and function. It represents our uniqueness and serves to focus our attention and energies on one major purpose. After significant input from the Strategic Planning Team, faculty, staff and trustees, the Board officially adopted the enclosed Mission statement on September 21, 1999. As the foundation for PBCC's annual plan, the Mission will guide us in working together for a common purpose.

Truly, this accomplishment has been a participatory process, and it would not have been possible without the hard work, dedication, energy, creativity and commitment from all members of the PBCC community.

Sincerely,

Dennis P. Gallon, Ph.D.

President

Acknowledgements

The Palm Beach Community College Strategic Plan would not have been possible without the leadership of PBCC President Dennis P. Gallon. Indeed, it was his vision of strategic planning as a major tool for determining the College's future direction that set a number of activities in motion and resulted in this Strategic Plan.

To begin, I would like to thank the PBCC District Board of Trustees for their leadership, support and recognition of the participatory process necessary to guide Palm Beach Community College into the future.

Also, I would like to express my appreciation to Vice President of Academic Affairs Sharon A. Sass for her leadership, tireless efforts, coordination and support throughout the entire strategic planning process.

"Strategic planning is the means by which an organization constantly recreates itself to achieve an extraordinary purpose."

*Bill Cook
National Leader in Strategic Planning*

Additionally, I wish to thank members of the President's Staff for providing the leadership, expertise, creativity and support needed to develop and implement the Strategic Plan.

Further, I would like to thank Executive Administrative Assistant Carol Sperr for all her behind the scenes activities to coordinate the various meetings and notices that supported the planning process.

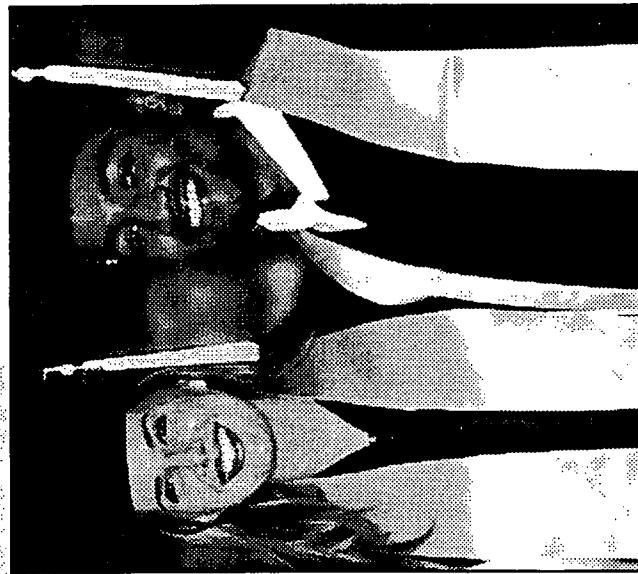

Also, I would like to recognize Office Assistant Phyllis Gray, who came on board late in the process, but provided the added clerical support to make things work.

A special acknowledgment goes to Senior Research Analyst Hui-Min Wen and Research Analyst Jeff Nowak of Institutional Effectiveness for their support and technical assistance in the strategic planning process and preparation for this document.

I would also like to thank the staff of College Relations and Marketing for being there at the beginning and supporting the entire process: Director of Marketing Grace Truman, Senior College Relations and Marketing Specialist Sue Rathbone and Graphic Communications Technician Rebecca Foster.

Finally, Strategic Planning is a participatory process, and a special debt of gratitude is owed to the PBCC District Board of Trustees, the President, President's Staff, the Strategic Planning Team, Action Team leaders, Action Team members, administrators, faculty, the United Faculty of PBCC, staff, PBCC chapter of Florida Association of Community Colleges (FACC), students, Florida Atlantic University, Palm Beach County Public Schools System and representatives of the greater Palm Beach County community for their tireless efforts, professionalism, caring attitude and commitment to the students of PBCC.

Vision

Beliefs describe the moral character of the College. They represent a consensus of personal values of those who make up the College.

We believe:

- Students must be prepared for an ever-changing global environment.
- Providing a quality education is worth the cost and effort.
- Instruction should meet the varying learning styles of students.
- We must hold an uncompromising commitment to excellence.
- Equity and equality of opportunity are essential.
- A safe, supportive and secure College climate is essential.
- Diversity should be embraced as a reflection of society and enhances the educational process.
- The College should prepare students to be responsible and productive members of the community.
- Knowledge of options is essential.
- All of our students are capable of experiencing success.
- Increased student interaction with the College and the community enriches learning.
- The College must prepare students for future leadership roles.
- Participation of all members of the College community will enhance the decision-making process.

The Vision statement is a values based description of the College's desired future and its distinctive characteristics of success. It clarifies what the College should look like and how it should conduct itself as it fulfills its Mission.

We envision a College that is a diverse community of active learners where achievement occurs in an environment without boundaries. We envision a responsive collaborative institution committed to the ongoing renaissance and enrichment of its community.

Mission

- Palm Beach Community College, a comprehensive two-year institution with a rich history of achievement since 1933, is dedicated to serving the educational needs of the residents of Palm Beach County by providing the associate in arts, associate in science and associate in applied science degrees, professional certificates, workforce development and lifelong learning.

The mission of Palm Beach Community College is to provide an accessible and affordable education through a dedicated and knowledgeable faculty and staff, a responsive curriculum and a strong community partnership, which together will enable students to think critically, demonstrate leadership, develop ethical standards and compete effectively in the global workplace.

Identifying the needs of the community is the first step to providing quality education that is accessible, affordable and creative. The strategic planning process has allowed us to examine our core, eliminate our weaknesses and maximize our strengths.

Strategic Parameters

These are not Board policies or routine operational, administrative, or academic rules and procedures. These are limitations the College places upon itself. They are parameters or boundaries in which the College will operate. They are things the College will always do or never do. They are usually stated in the negative. They must be enforceable and controllable.

- We will practice participatory management at all levels.
- No degree/certificate-seeking student will be placed without appropriate screening and advisement.
- We will not tolerate discrimination.
- No allocation of staff should be made without a current evaluation of needs.
- We will not continue to employ personnel who do not meet performance expectations or standards.
- No program will be implemented without a needs assessment, evaluation, operational plan of action, trained staff and adequate financial resources.
- We will not tolerate disruptive behavior.
- All College activities will be conducted with civility, respect and to the highest ethical standards.

"For faculty determining the future of the College in a number of different ways that have yet to be discovered is a very important process. And I've appreciated the enthusiasm that I've seen from the top."

Professor R.J. Cifone

Strategies and Action Plan Summaries

*"As a member of the business community, I believe that Palm Beach Community College has taken a giant step forward by developing action plans which, when implemented, will accomplish the prescribed strategies and help the College fulfill its mission. These may be the most significant part of the plan. They are the commitments to deploy the College's resources toward its stated objectives. It is a preplanned commitment of resources toward an objective. Strategies tell how the College will accomplish the Objectives and realize the Mission.

Action plans are critical to the strategic plan. In fact, this is probably the most important phase of the planning process. It is during this phase that specific operational plans are developed to implement the strategies. The Action Teams do not implement the plans, but the plans they develop contain enough detail that they can be carried out when operationally assigned. The action plan is a detailed description of the specific actions required to achieve the results necessary for the implementation of the strategies.
